Program announced from the stage

Chilean vocalist Natalia Bernal, keyboardist Mike Eckroth and seven-string guitarist Jason Ennis blend the captivating rhythms and nuanced songwriting traditions of Latin America, original compositions and picks from the Great American Songbook into a surprising improvisational texture.

Today's concert will feature another longtime friend and collaborator, trumpeter and composer Thomas Bergeron. The material will draw on repertoire from the past and present projects of La Voz de Tres, plus selections from Bergeron's hybrid jazz chamber ensemble, which presents music inspired by the work of composers such as Claude Debussy, Olivier Messiaen, Franz Liszt, Sergei Rachmaninoff, Alexander Scriabin, and Toru Takemitsu.
